

Morse code requirement is outdated and a barrier for learning disabled individuals. Efforts spent trying to learn code are better spent on other areas of radio communications. I stongly urge the FCC to eliminate code requirements and grant HF privileges to individuals who have achieved Technician privileges.